

INSIGHT

Into how businesses have benefited from Townends philosophy - clarity, management and growth.

COMPANY:

Thomas The Baker, Helmsley, North Yorkshire.

PROBLEM:

I had an excellent position with my former employer but was faced with the opportunity to set up my own business - leading to potential major tax issues.

OBJECTIVE:

The objective was simple. To set up my own business but ensure I had the best possible help to make sure it was done correctly - this was when Townends stepped in!

OPPORTUNITIES:

Thomas the Baker was set up from home. There was a ready made market for all we could make and various outlet opportunities.

OUTCOMES:

We have established a successful growing business focused in North Yorkshire. We have a number of training programmes, staff incentives and business development plans. Excellent advice and planning from Townends has enabled us to keep focused.

CLIENT QUOTE:

"We have always surrounded ourselves with professionals and Townends are an integral part of our professional team. They have provided us with advice and assisted with planning opportunities for many years over which we have developed close friendships."

JOHN THOMAS, MANAGING DIRECTOR - THOMAS THE BAKER.
